Said property and equipment shall remain the exclusive property of THE SWITCH and Customer shall take reasonable care of said equipment (which care shall be not less than that which it uses in respect of its own property of a similar nature) and protect it from fire, theft, vandalism or other casualty loss. Customer shall be responsible for loss or damage to such property and equipment, including loss or damage due to the actions of its employees and/or agents. Customer agrees to cooperate with and assist THE SWITCH in the performance of such functions so as to best ensure that such functions are properly accomplished and so as to minimize any interference with the provision of the Services to Customer.

2.11 Customer agrees that THE SWITCH shall have no responsibility or liability whatsoever with respect to any Customer signal or program outside the points of entry where any such signal or program enters into or departs from THE SWITCH Network. As used herein, points of entry and/or departure shall refer to those points where a Customer signal or program enters into or departs from THE SWITCH equipment furnished hereunder, regardless of location.

2.12 Customer is solely responsible for confirming accuracy of any booking information made via phone or email.

2.13 Full implementation of Service is subject to availability of facilities and completion of installation and testing of any required fiber circuits by Customer and THE SWITCH's fiber carrier (the "Carrier"). Customer acknowledges that THE SWITCH is obtaining certain facilities from the Carrier and that implementation by Customer's requested start date will be subject to Customer's provision of adequate lead time. 2.14 Certain components of the Services provided hereunder are subject to the Carrier's special fiber service arrangement agreement (the "Carrier Service Agreement") entered into between THE SWITCH and Carrier. THE SWITCH and Customer recognize and acknowledge that THE SWITCH is obtaining local metro fiber optic service from the Carrier and will be subject to the Carrier Service Agreement. Accordingly, to the extent that the Carrier Service Agreement directly or indirectly concerns any fiber optic usage, the terms of this Agreement shall be subordinate to the terms of the Carrier Service Agreement and the rights or interest of Customer shall be no greater than the rights or interest of THE SWITCH under the Carrier Service Agreement. In the event that THE SWITCH rights or interest under the Carrier Service Agreement shall be greater than the rights or interests of Customer hereunder, Customer is not entitled to any rights or interest greater than is provided in this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms and provisions of this paragraph and the terms and provisions of any other paragraph of this Agreement, then the terms and provisions of this paragraph shall control.

2.15 In the event that the duties and obligations of the Carrier and THE SWITCH change in such a manner as to materially and adversely affect the Service to be provided to Customer under this Agreement and provided that Customer's accounts with THE SWITCH remain current, Customer shall have the right to terminate the affected Service by providing written notice to THE SWITCH in accordance with the notice provision herein.

Suspension of Service shall be without prejudice to all other rights and remedies of THE SWITCH, including without limitation those provided in Section 4 herein and Customer shall be liable for all costs of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and collection agency fees. In the event that THE SWITCH is required to submit more than one (1) default notice for non-payment, THE SWITCH may, at its option, require a deposit, without prior demand or notice, and set-off any future outstanding balances against said deposit.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

4.1 Term. This Agreement shall commence on the earlier of (a) the effective date of the Service Schedule, if any, or (b) on the date THE SWITCH makes a Service available to the Customer. 4.2 Termination. If either Party hereto defaults in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder, the other Party may terminate this Agreement or any Service hereunder upon written notice to the defaulting Party, if the defaulting party fails to cure its breach within fifteen (15) business days of delivery of such notice, per Section 14. In addition, if Customer becomes insolvent or ceases to conduct its business, if an assignment is made of Customer's business for the benefit of creditors, if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by or against Customer, if a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy or similar officer is appointed to take charge of all or a part of Customer's property or if Customer is adjudicated as bankrupt, THE SWITCH may, at its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement upon giving fifteen (15) days written notice to Customer.

On termination of this Agreement for any reason, Customer shall provide access to any premises at which THE SWITCH property and equipment is located to enable THE SWITCH to remove such property and equipment. In the event that Customer fails to provide access and THE SWITCH's property and equipment cannot be removed within thirty (30) days of the termination date Customer shall pay the cost of replacing the equipment.

4.4 Termination Charges. If Customer terminates a Service, in whole or part, before expiration of the applicable Service Term for any other reason other than THE SWITCH's breach, or if THE SWITCH suspends or terminates a Service due to any breach by Customer, then Customer shall pay an early suspension/termination charge equal to: (a) for each Service so suspended or terminated, all previously invoiced but unpaid non-recurring fees for the terminated Service; (b) for each Service Schedule so suspended or terminated, all monthly recurring fees for the terminated Service as set forth in the applicable Service Schedule, multiplied by the number of months remaining in the applicable Service Term at the time of termination; and (c) for early termination of booked ICOD Services with minimum usage commitments, or for one-time only events, the full value of the booked Services. Customer acknowledges that such early termination charge is a fair and reasonable sum and shall not be challenged by Customer in any legal action.

5. PLANNED INTERRUPTIONS

During the Term, occasional interruptions of Service to Customer may be required for repairs or maintenance, testing or improvement of the systems operated by THE SWITCH.
